Target group

Export- and import managers, Lawyers, Manufacturers, Suppliers, Consultants, Controllers, Quality Mangers

Background, Seminar goal

Product liability in the U.S. is a challenge for companies. In the media often spectacular claims regarding defective products are discussed, but many companies are not sufficiently prepared for product liability claims. The purpose of this seminar is to introduce you to U.S. product liability and to outline how risks can be mitigated. A key topic is prevention by risk management.

Speaker

Dr. Paul Luiki, J.D. (Iowa), lawyer in Vienna and partner at the law firm Fellner Wratzfeld & Partner Rechtsanwälte GmbH; licensed lawyer in the state of Ohio; native-born US citizen with extensive practical experience as a lawyer in the US and in Austria; specialized in contract and corporate law, in particular product liability matters.
